FAIR AND WARMER.

Weather Predicted for Tonight and Sunday.

Forecast till 8 p.m. Sunday: For the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, fair and warmer tonight and Sunday; light to fresh easterly, shifting to southerly, winds. Weather conditions and general forecast:

The barometric pressure continues high over the eastern part of the country and on the north Pacific coast, and is low on the middle and southeastern Rocky mountain slope, where a disturbance is apparently developing.

The temperature is low for the season in the northwest and over the northern Rocky mountain and north Pacific coast districts;

elsewhere the temperature corresponds closely to the seasonal average. Local rains have occurred from the northern lake region over the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys and the middle and southern Rocky mountain region. Local rains also occurred Thursday in the south Atlantic and middle and east gulf states. Fair weather will continue tonight and Sunday in the Atlantic coast states and the Ohio valley, with slowly rising temperature. In the lower lake region, in the interior of the south Atlantic states and along the Florida and east gulf coasts local rains will occur Sunday.

Along the middle and north Atlantic coasts the winds will be light and variable, and mostly from east to south. On the south Atlantic and gulf coasts fresh east to southeast winds will prevail. In the lower lake region the winds will be fresh from the southeast. Steamers departing today for European ports will have light variable winds, mostly southerly, and fair weather to the Grand Banks.

The following heavy precipitation (in inches) has been reported during the past twenty-four hours: Columbus, Miss., 1.90; Tampa, 1.00.

DIVORCE FOR SIGNOR BUTI.

Baltimore Architect Alleges Desertion by His Wife.

The Baltimore Sun of today says: Rudulph Buti obtained an absolute divorce from Antonina Buti in circuit court No. 2 yesterday on the ground of abandonment. The civil contract of marriage was entered into before a notary public in Turin, Italy, March 18, 1873, and the next day the couple were married according to the rites of the Catholic Church in Rome. In his bill of complaint Mr. Buti claimed they lived together in Rome until July 5, 1895, when his wife left him. In his testimony before Examiner James E. Carr, jr., Mr. Buti said he is an archi-"I had been in Naples on business," he continued, "and when I returned to my home in Rome I found my wife had taken all the furniture in the house and gone to Turin. She left a letter for me, in which she said 'Good-bye forever' and that we were not born for each other and not suited to be together." Mr. Buti said he was then making from $6,000 to $7,000 a year, treated his wife well and that she had all the money she wanted. He said he arrived in New York May 9, 1896; a month later went to Washington, and about July 1 following came to Baltimore, and has since lived here. The couple have two children, a girl and a boy, now both adults. The daughter is married and lives in Rome, and the son is an officer of the cavalry service of the Italian army. Amilcare Nave, a witness, said his father built the department of justice in Rome, which was designed by Mr. Buti. He said Mr. Buti was architect for the King of Italy and also for the prime minister, and that he designed various prominent build-

EXCURSIONS. The Colonial Beach trip of the steamer Arrowsmith will be made as usual tomorrow. This is the most pleasant of the allday trips out of Washington. The steamer will leave her wharf, foot of 7th street, at 8:45 a.m. and will stop at Alexandria. No further stops will be made until the Beach is reached. Several hours will be given to have a salt water bath or to go crabbing or fishing. The steamer will start on her homeward trip about 5 p.m; and, will reach home about 10 p.m. Next week closes the trips to Colonial Beach by the Arrowsmith for the summer. The steamer Harry Randall will make her last Saturday trip to Colonial Beach, Colton's, Piney Point and St. George's Island today, leaving here at 5:45 p.m. and returning Sunday at 10 p.m.

The trip of the steamer Estelle Randall to Chapel Point, Md., tomorrow will be the last trip to this resort. These Sunday outings to the Point have proved popular. The ride on the river, over a hundred miles, will be found very enjoyable, and the fishing and crabbing at the Point are said to be excellent. The steamer leaves her wharf here at 8:45 a.m. and Alexandria a half hour later. Returning, she leaves Chapel Point at 5 p.m. and reaches home about 10 p.m.

The well-known Arion Singing Society, one of the leading German musical organizations of the city, will have its annual fall outing at River View tomorrow, and this will end the Sunday trips to that pleasant resort. For the amusement of the visitors the Little River, the chute and all the other attractions of the resort will be in full operation. In addition to this the committee of the Arion Singing Society in charge of the excursion have arranged a program of hymns and folk songs of the German fatherland, which will be rendered by a chorus of sixty trained voices. The steamer Pentz leaves her wharf here at 11 a.m., 2:45 and 6:15 p.m.

The steamers Saml. J. Pentz and Harry Randall will make hourly trips to River View on Labor day, leaving the wharf, foot of 7th street, at 10 and 11 a.m., 12:30, 1:30, 3:00, 4:00, 5:00, 6:30 and 7 p.m., and the return trips will be made hourly up to 10:30 o'clock at night. Everybody can go, and there will be no crowding.

The steamer T. V. Arrowsmith will make a special trip Monday for the benefit of those who wish to spend the Labor day holiday with their friends at Colonial Beach. She leaves the wharf here at 8:45 a.m., stopping at Alexandria at 9:15 a.m., and makes no further stops until the Beach is reached, about 1 p.m. Four hours are given to enjoy the salt water bathing, to go crabbing and fishing, or to find amusement with the many other attractions of the resort. On the return trip the steamer will leave the Beach at 5 p.m., reaching home about 10 p.m.

Marshall Hall will be an attractive place tomorrow, as this is the last Sunday of the season; and should the day prove to be a pleasant one there is every reason to anticipate that a large number will spend the day on the green lawns of this popular resort. The Marshall Hall band will be heard in concert music, both on the boat and grounds, and all the amusements will be in active operation, table d'hote dinners will be served all day and evening. Steamer Charles Macalester will leave for Marshall Hall tomorrow at 11 a.m., 2:30 and 6:30 p.m.; returning, leave the Hall at 1, 5

Mount Vernon will be open as usual to visitors Monday, Labor day, and the steamer Charles Macalester will make two trips, leaving 7th street wharf at 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.; returning, due to arrive at Washington at 2:15 and 6:15 p.m. This route gives the sight-seer a delightful sail down the historic Potomac, and an oppor-tunity to see the United States arsenal. Alexandria, Fort Foote, Fort Washington and Fort Hunt. Only those who have made the trip by this route can appreciate the perfect accommodations and service. There s an elegant cafe on the steamer.
